

Savour the taste of a classic country High Tea

The grand country style of our historic retreats create the perfect setting for the revival of the great British tradition of High Tea. Using the freshest ingredients from the Southern Highlands to create delicious pastries baked daily and accompanied by Peppers renowned personal service, Peppers will treat you to a memorable afternoon. You can also combine your High Tea with a spa treatment at our indulgent endota spas. We would advise booking your High Tea in advance to ensure the very best selection of tasty treats await you.
