ACCOMMODATION

Part of a North Queensland experience is being able to throw open your doors and windows to the elements. Enjoy the warm breezes of the evening blowing across the wide balcony. Pause to appreciate the magnificent Whitsunday Passage views from just about every room.

If you're looking for something spacious and contemporary, with plenty of room to spread out or entertain in, you can enjoy relaxed living in a fully equipped apartment.

- One Bedroom Spa Apartment
- Two Bedroom Spa Apartment
- Three Bedroom Spa Apartment

DINING

Take full advantage of the setting at Tides Restaurant & Bar at Peppers Airlie Beach. Pull up a bar stool or be seated at a table overlooking the stunning Whitsunday Passage. The menu is based on local organic fruit and vegetables, fish and prawns fresh from nearby reefs, Queensland scallops, crabs and bugs expertly combined with a passion for food. The wine list will likewise be excellent.

If you want to venture out from the resort, Airlie Beach village has a number of tropical alfresco cafés, restaurants, bars, pubs and clubs worth exploring.
