GALLERY HOTEL

WELCOME TO PEPPERS GALLERY

Step into timeless elegance at Peppers Gallery Hotel Canberra, an intimate 80 room boutique escape set within a beautifully restored, heritage-listed 1920s building.

Located in the sophisticated New Acton precinct, this artful retreat blends historic charm with contemporary indulgence. Elegantly appointed rooms feature bespoke furnishings, premium bedding, and Bang & Olufsen entertainment. Just moments from Lake Burley Griffin, the National Museum, and the city's cultural icons, the hotel is a haven for discerning travelers.

Savor award-winning Italian cuisine at Bicicletta restaurant, sip fine wines at the Library Bar, or enjoy alfresco dining in the leafy courtyard. Elegant boardrooms, curated art, 24-hour service, and complimentary Wi-Fi complete an experience defined by comfort, style, and heritage.

Discover an intimate hideaway where history whispers, and every stay feels personally curated.

SUSTAINABLE TOURISM CERTIFIED

Peppers Gallery Hotel Canberra holds the prestigious Sustainable Tourism Certification from Ecotourism Australia, reflecting our commitment to environmentally responsible and culturally respectful hospitality. As part of the Accor group, we've eliminated single-use plastics, reduced food waste, and implemented eco-friendly practices throughout the hotel. Staying with us means choosing a boutique, heritage-rich experience that supports a greener future.

HOTEL HISTORY

Originally known as the Acton Hotel, the building first opened its doors on 5 May 1927, just days before the grand opening of the first Parliament House on 9 May 1927.

It was constructed to accommodate the influx of VIP guests arriving in Canberra for this significant event. The hotel's architecture reflects the grandeur of the era, with features that have been preserved and integrated into its modern design.
