This is a COVID Safe event.

Hosted by the Noosa Biosphere Reserve Foundation and IN Noosa Magazine.

Celebrating this International Day for Biosphere Reserves, join us as we shine a light on the iconic and threatened Glossy Black Cockatoo.

Frock up in your finest "Black & Glossy" and show your support for this iconic species. Enjoy a sumptuous two-course menu with amuse bouche and matching wines by chef Matt Golinski, fashion parade curated by Carlie Wacker with exciting prizes for Best Dressed, and our "Glossy Raffle" will be awarded on the day. All proceeds from the charity luncheon will go towards conserving our Glossy Black Cockatoo population.
